

Russia's recent behaviour in regards to the recent conflict with Georgia and energy dispute with Ukraine. We also cited the need to enhance mutual trust between the transatlantic partners and Russia.

On energy and climate change, we stressed that the EU and the US should work together to address these issues at the UN negotiations in Copenhagen later this year. We discussed cap-and-trade systems and the feasibility of setting up mutually compatible systems. We noted the link between tackling climate change and addressing energy security and economic growth, recognizing that the fight against climate change could also be an opportunity to create new jobs and sustain economic growth.

We examined the consequences of the global economic and financial turmoil. We agreed that the crisis requires a strong and coordinated policy response by the US and the EU. Recovery plans currently being adopted are critical in mitigating the effects of the crisis: approaches chosen should be compatible, avoid protectionist measures, and not give rise to distortions of competition in the transatlantic market place. We considered that global financial regulation and supervision should be strengthened, including better crisis prevention and management, and that EU and US should cooperate on the reform of international financial institutions.

We stressed the importance of the Transatlantic Economic Council (TEC), including its utility as a framework for macro-economic cooperation between both partners. We welcomed the progress made over recent months in promoting transatlantic economic integration, including investment, accounting standards, regulatory issues, the safety of imported products, and the enforcement of intellectual property rights.

We insisted that transatlantic economic cooperation must be more accountable and transparent. In particular, the schedules of TEC meetings, agendas, roadmaps and progress reports should be agreed upon between the core stakeholders as early as possible and then made public. Such measures are crucial to developing a clear and transparent process for setting the agenda of the TEC, extending the TEC to new sectors, and establishing a long-term roadmap of activities. We called on the EU and US executive branches to facilitate more active participation by members of the US Congress and the European Parliament in the TEC process, in particular via the TLD.

We considered that both partners should use the full potential of the TEC in order to overcome the existing obstacles to economic integration. To this effect, legislators on both sides of the Atlantic should convey their views on legislative and bureaucratic obstacles to the TEC leadership and conduct a regular review of the situation. We emphasized once more the concerns raised by the 100 percent cargo scan requirement, as well as the need to resolve remaining disputes with regard to the REACH regulation and access to the EU market for American poultry.

We discussed President Obama's signing of an executive order leading to the closure of the Guantanamo detention facility within a year. We also considered that the US and the EU Member States should cooperate in finding solutions wherever necessary, including accepting Guantanamo inmates in the European Union.

The dialogue also focused on the negotiations between the US and the EU Member States to extend access to the US visa waiver programme. We welcomed the extension of the programme to seven EU Member States, and encouraged the EU and US executive bodies to continue activities with regard to the Member States not yet included.

Finally, the dialogue took note of a 2008 European Commission report on legislation passed by the US Congress in 2006. The report found that the legislation was not in compliance with World Trade Organization policies as they apply to internet gambling. The TLD expressed strong support for ongoing discussions between the US and EU to resolve the situation in an effort to avoid potential sanctions against the US and the loss of export markets for US business sectors.

In conclusion, both sides renewed their commitment to make the TLD's work more relevant to the European Parliament and to the U.S. House of Representatives. We also agreed to further improve the effectiveness of our dialogue in order to realize the full potential of our interparliamentary relationship.

HONORING THE VOLUNTEER SERVICE OF KARISSA TATOM

HON. WALT MINNICK

OF IDAHO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 4, 2009

Mr. MINNICK. Madam Speaker, I would like to congratulate and honor a young student from my district who has achieved national recognition for exemplary volunteer service in her community. Karissa Tatom, 17, of Meridian, a senior at Cole Valley Christian Schools, has been named one of the top honorees in Idaho by the 2009 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program, an annual honor conferred on the most impressive student volunteers in each state and the District of Columbia.

Ms. Karissa Tatom is being recognized as a Distinguished Finalist by the program's judges, and will receive a bronze medal. Ms. Tatom learned how to knit so she could make hats and scarves for the "Mad Hatter" organization, which provides hats to women and children who have suffered hair loss due to chemotherapy.

In light of numerous statistics indicating that Americans today are less involved in their communities, it's vital that we encourage and support the kind of selfless contributions this young citizen has made. People of all ages need to think more about how we, as individual citizens, can work together at the local level to ensure the health and vitality of our towns and neighborhoods. Young volunteers like Ms. Karissa Tatom are inspiring examples to all of us and are among our brightest hopes for tomorrow.

Ms. Tatom should be extremely proud to have been singled out from the thousands dedicated volunteers who participated in this year's program. I heartily applaud her for her initiative in seeking to make her community a better place to live, and for the positive impact she has had on the lives of others. She has demonstrated a level of commitment and accomplishment that is truly extraordinary in today's world, and deserves our sincere admiration and respect. Her actions show that young Americans can—and do—play important roles in our communities and that America's community spirit continues to hold tremendous promise for the future.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. GLENN THOMPSON

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 4, 2009

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, on rollcall No. 207 I was absent on the evening of April 27, 2009, because I was attending a public meeting at the Allegheny National Forest in Warren, Pennsylvania, regarding the pending Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement (SEIS), ongoing litigation, and the proposed "settlement." Recent Forest Service actions on the Allegheny have created adverse economic distress in my rural district and are unfairly denying my constituents access to their legally owned subsurface mineral rights.

Had I been present, I would have voted "Yea."

TRIBUTE TO DR. SIDNEY J.
PARNES

HON. BRIAN HIGGINS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, May 4, 2009

Mr. HIGGINS. Madam Speaker, I am honored to pay tribute to Sidney J. Parnes, one of the great practitioners and researchers in the field of creativity and a co-founder of the Osborn-Parnes Creative Problem Solving Process.

In honoring Dr. Parnes as a pioneer in the worldwide understanding of creative thinking, the House of Representatives adds their appreciation to those that will be expressed by his family, friends, students and colleagues as they gather at Daemen College on May 8–9, 2009 for "Unlocking the Magic: A Tribute and Celebration with Sidney J. Parnes."

Dr. Sidney J. Parnes is co-founder of the International Center for Studies in Creativity, housed at my alma mater, Buffalo State College, and remains the only place in the world where you can receive a Masters of Science degree in Creativity. His contributions have added to the city of Buffalo's significant reputation as a dynamic arts community.

Dr. Parnes' passionate belief that creativity is a result of a balance between divergent and convergent thinking and that everyone can be taught to apply creative behavior in their personal and professional lives has led to his well-earned recognition as the world's leading expert in the field for more than a half century.

A life-long creativity researcher and author, world-class educator and Professor Emeritus of Creative Studies at the State University of New York College at Buffalo, Dr. Parnes co-founded CPSI (Creative Problem Solving Institute) with Dr. Alex Osborn in 1955. The CPSI became an international gathering for the more than 50 years it was held annually in Buffalo when, at times, 700 people representing 36 countries were in attendance.

A life-long researcher and author, this world-renowned educator is responsible for assembling the most comprehensive library on creativity at the University with over 2,400 volumes and launched the scholarly Journal of Creative Behavior in 1967 which includes the latest research, tools and techniques on creativity, innovation and creative problem solving.

From 1967 to 1984, Dr. Parnes served as president of the Creative Education Foundation, presenting countless workshops on creativity and creative problem-solving for leaders in business, education and government throughout North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia.

He is a recipient of the State University of New York College at Buffalo "President's Award for Excellence" and is a member of the Creative Education Foundation Hall of Fame as well as the American Creativity Association's Hall of Fame. He has also been recognized by the Innovation Network with a Lifetime Achievement Award for his unprecedented accomplishments to further the creative movement worldwide.

Our congratulations extend to his wife, Bea Parnes, whom Dr. Parnes called "my indispensable colleague, my life companion and dearest friend." Along with their collaborative educational research, they have served as board members of People Inc. for many years and provided numerous workshops for social agencies.

Our good wishes extend to his children and grandchildren who influenced and participated in Dr. Parnes pursuits as he has noted "I'm proud of my family and their achievements, especially their receptivity to creative problem solving and willingness to apply it from their earliest days to family issues and challenges."

I am pleased and honored to send the best wishes of the United States House of Representatives to Dr. Sidney J. Parnes and to his family and friends as they gather to celebrate his life, leadership and legacy of outstanding contributions to the creative life of those whose lives he has so greatly influenced and to the City of Buffalo, the "Cradle of Creative Studies."
